Center gets $$ to help elderly

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

A $20,000 federal grant may enable some Romulus residents to avoid a traumatic change in their lives.

The Romulus Help and Job Placement Center has received the grant from the Older Americans Act to provide a Senior Citizen Chore Services Program in the community.

The program, according to coordinator Beth Spencer, is designed to provide funds to pay for chores on senior citizens' homes which they could not normally do themselves, and may not be able to afford except through the program.

"The idea is to give seniors the opportunity to live independently in their own homes rather than being sent to homes for the aged because they cannot perform some of the tasks needed to keep up homes," Miss Spencer said. "The funds will be enough to provide about 80 hours of chore services for senior citizens each week, and to pay workers about $2.50 per hour to perform the services."

The unique program will enable persons in the community who may not have another opportunity for employment to receive that employment through the Help Center. "We're hoping to get school-aged youths and senior citizens capable of doing the work, and who need a supplemental income, to work in the program," Miss Spencer added. "In this way, we're not only helping seniors keep their homes up, and avoid the trauma of a move to a convalescent home or old age care center, but also providing employment in an high unemployment area."

At this time, Miss Spencer is seeking workers to perform chores.

"There are no special qualifications, other than an ability to relate to senior citizens and a willingness to work," Miss Spencer said. "We're looking for people with particular skills, such as carpentry, but we're also looking for someone who is willing to perform tasks as housecleaning or some light shopping for a person who isn't able to do all of it himself."

"An example of the work which may have to be done now is putting up storm windows for the winter."

"We're not trying to free senior citizens from the chores they are able to perform themselves, but want to be available to someone who may be physically unable to perform the chore, but is perfectly capable of living in his own home with some assistance."

Miss Spencer added that past work in an old age care center convinced her of the need for such a program.

"I saw many people who don't really need the intensive care they received, but who had no other alternative when they had an inability to do certain work on their own homes," she said. "This is a good chance to free those people enough so they can keep their own home, and allow them a happier, fuller life."

Program workers, to be called "providers" are asked to call Miss Spencer at 941-7970 to apply for work.

Persons who may need work done, or those who know of work which could be done for others can call the same number for information.

However, until workers are available, the program won't start.

"My plan now is to get a list of persons who are willing to do work throughout the day," Miss Spencer said. "This won't be a 40-hour a week job, and may require somewhat staggered starting times for individuals."

"But the job provides an excellent opportunity for senior citizens who have retired, and may want to supplement their income, or students who are willing to work after school."

Store stocks
grocery shelves

The lack of adequate supermarket facilities in Romulus' western section soon will end with the opening of BillMar's Supermarket on Goddard and Shook roads in the city's downtown area. Workers such as Bob Dubisky of Wabash Street, Romulus, have been busy during the past week stocking shelves in preparation for the planned Oct. 22 opening of the facility. The 15,000-square-foot building will house a complete line of foods and some household goods. Romulus' western reaches have been without shopping facilities since the old Vesco's chain, which operated a store in the same building, went bankrupt in the spring. — The Romulus Roman photos.

On court plan

Communities agree

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

The leaders of the five communities involved in the use of the 34th District Court apparently have agreed on a plan for constructing a new court building.

Despite threats last week of suits and counter suits, the cities of Belleville and Romulus and the townships of Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren agreed on a plan considering a community's net worth and the amount of time it uses the court as a means to finance construction of a new building and to defray costs of operating that facility.

Belleville's representative to the 5-community task force studying the program, Justin Emerson, presented the plan to the gathering.

Emerson's plan of combining consideration of state equalized value and court use on a 50-50 basis for dividing the costs of new construction and operations was modified to a proposal which could consider a city's net worth — its state equalized value — when assessing costs for the court work and the amount of use the community makes of the facility as a means to determine its share of the operating expenses.

Under the plan, all communities involved in the use of the court would receive all the fines collected on behalf of that community by the court and would be liable to make up operating costs out of the amount of fines and cases brought to it.

The plan means that Belleville, which has the lowest state equalized value of all communities involved, will pay a minor share of the cost for court construction, but will pay a greater proportionate share of the operating costs because of its high case volume.

Belleville surpasses both Huron and Sumpter in the number of cases it sends to court, even though the community is one-third the size of Sumpter and one-fourth the size of Huron by population.

Romulus has the lion's share of both costs for construction and operation because of the community's greater worth and court case load when compared to the others.

Van Buren's share would follow Romulus' in both instances.

The program will be presented to the various township and city representative boards for some determination on whether the five will join in the venture.

"It looks like we have a good plan," said Van Buren Township Supervisor G. Elton Gollwitzer.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt of Romulus equally was hopeful the plan would pass, and Emerson believes the plan was equitable.

No date has been set for a final determination on what will be done to finance the court, but officials in all communities are hoping the progress will speed up following their agreement on a means to finance the construction.

If the agreement is affirmed by the various boards, the court committee will set up an authority to oversee operations of the court, and charge it with finding a suitable location and devising a suitable design for a new court building.

Tentative talks have begun on building the court near the Huron River off of Haggerty Road and Huron River Drive.

Volunteer city police force may improve protection

Romulus officials are hoping a highly-trained volunteer police force in the city will improve protection for citizens of Romulus without extra cost to them.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol operation in Romulus is embarking on a "Sheriff's Reserve" program for the community to get "more eyes" on the streets and provide manpower to help with lower priority police work, such as traffic direction, in an effort to free up the regular Road Patrol officers in the city for more detailed police work.

More than two months in the planning, the reserve concept would put highly-trained unpaid volunteers on the streets of the city as an auxiliary to the regular Sheriff's Road Patrol.

"I'm enthused about the idea because of the benefits to the community," Mayor Terry L. Troutt said. "These men will be better-trained than any volunteer force in any other community, and will be fully capable of handling police duties in emergencies, and handling important though low priority police work which is taking time from the regular Road Patrol officers in fighting crime."

Projected responsibilities for the volunteers, who will be asked to donate eight hours of work per month, include traffic control, building security checks, vacation home checks, business door checks, security for special events, night and park patrol, emergency assistance, first aid, assistance to officers at investigations and preparing a merchant index file.

Deputy Insp. James Haile, the city's director of law enforcement, said the concept gives the Sheriff's Road Patrol a valuable arm to combat crime.

Troutt said that besides the direct aid the volunteers will give to police protection, there will be latent benefits.

"It will put more eyes and ears in the streets to learn of crimes," Troutt added. "The police always have said that crime fighting is only as good as the concerned people who will help, and these men will be trained to help in the best means possible."

Applications for the volunteer force now are available in the Romulus personnel office and the sheriff's Road Patrol headquarters on Henry Road at Michigan Avenue in Westland.

Issue forum

Troutt explaining election promises

The only promises he is making in Romulus' city elections are to the people, according to the incumbent mayor.

In answer to The Romulus Roman's issues forum question for the week, Mayor Terry L. Troutt wrote that he had made no campaign promises for support, other than promises of more action to the people of the city.

The question was: "In most election campaigns, candidates make promises to the voters hoping to gather support. What campaign promises are you making? To who?"

Troutt, the only mayoral candidate to answer the question, said: "The promises I made were to the people."

"They are: —Hold the line on city taxes. I will veto any proposal for a Romulus tax increase."

"—Develop a major new shopping center for Romulus. I helped pass a new state law to help Romulus get a modern convenient shopping center. And now I'm going to get that center built — for all of Romulus.

"—Attract more industry for Romulus to help pay city taxes and provide jobs. The General Motors Diesel Plant was a good start that I'm proud of. We're going to bring more of these modern industries to take some of the tax load off the homeowners and to bring more jobs to Romulus."

"—Make Metro a better neighbor. We've gone to court to make Metropolitan Airport respect the rights of Romulus. We're going to continue to do all we can to make Metro a good neighbor, and if we have to, we'll keep fighting to do it."

"—Crack down on juvenile crime. Young offenders and their parents are going to know that Romulus does not tolerate juvenile delinquency. We'll go as far as the law will allow to drive youth crime out of our city."

Troutt's challenger, James C. Stewart, did not answer the question. It was made available to both mayoral candidates.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in our series of election issue forums designed to allow candidates fair and equal coverage in The Romulus Roman. We feel some candidates are only hurting themselves by not answering the questions posed each week by The Roman. This week the question was addressed to mayoral candidates. Another question was made available to the two MAYORAL CANDIDATES at noon today. The forum is presented in this clip-out format and we suggest voters cut it out and save it for re-reading before the election.

Lawsuit dropped

The million dollar slander suit pressed against Romulus' mayor by a city councilman has been dropped.

A Wayne County Circuit Court judge has ruled that Mayor Terry L. Troutt was within his rights as mayor when he made statements concerning Councilman James C. Stewart's tax payments to the Romulus City Council early in the summer.

Stewart, who now is running for the mayor's post against Troutt, filed the law suit after hearing taped statements made by Troutt at a meeting of the Romulus City Council.

Stewart alleged the statements were "slandrous" and resulted in "defamation of character."

Troutt was reporting to the council on Stewart's failure to pay taxes on a commercial building since 1971.

The building, which Stewart began constructing that year, had not been entered on the city's tax rolls until its absence was discovered early this year.

Stewart had filed a similar law suit against City Attorney William S. Munger also requesting $1 million in damages, but it was dismissed.

According to city records, Stewart has not yet paid back taxes on his commercial building, even though he has been billed for 1974 taxes amounting to more than $400.

The bill was sent to the councilman after the Michigan Tax Tribunal ruled he was liable for payments.

According to the tribunal, payment must be made with 6 percent per year interest for the delay.

To the editor: Once again, an attempt has been made on the life of the President and, once again, most of the publicity has been given to the "would-be assassin." This only tends to excite other neurotic and psychotic "would-be assassins."

Would not society be better served by publicizing the heroic efforts of the persons who help save the President's life? Would this not tend to motivate others to help one another rather than to do violence?

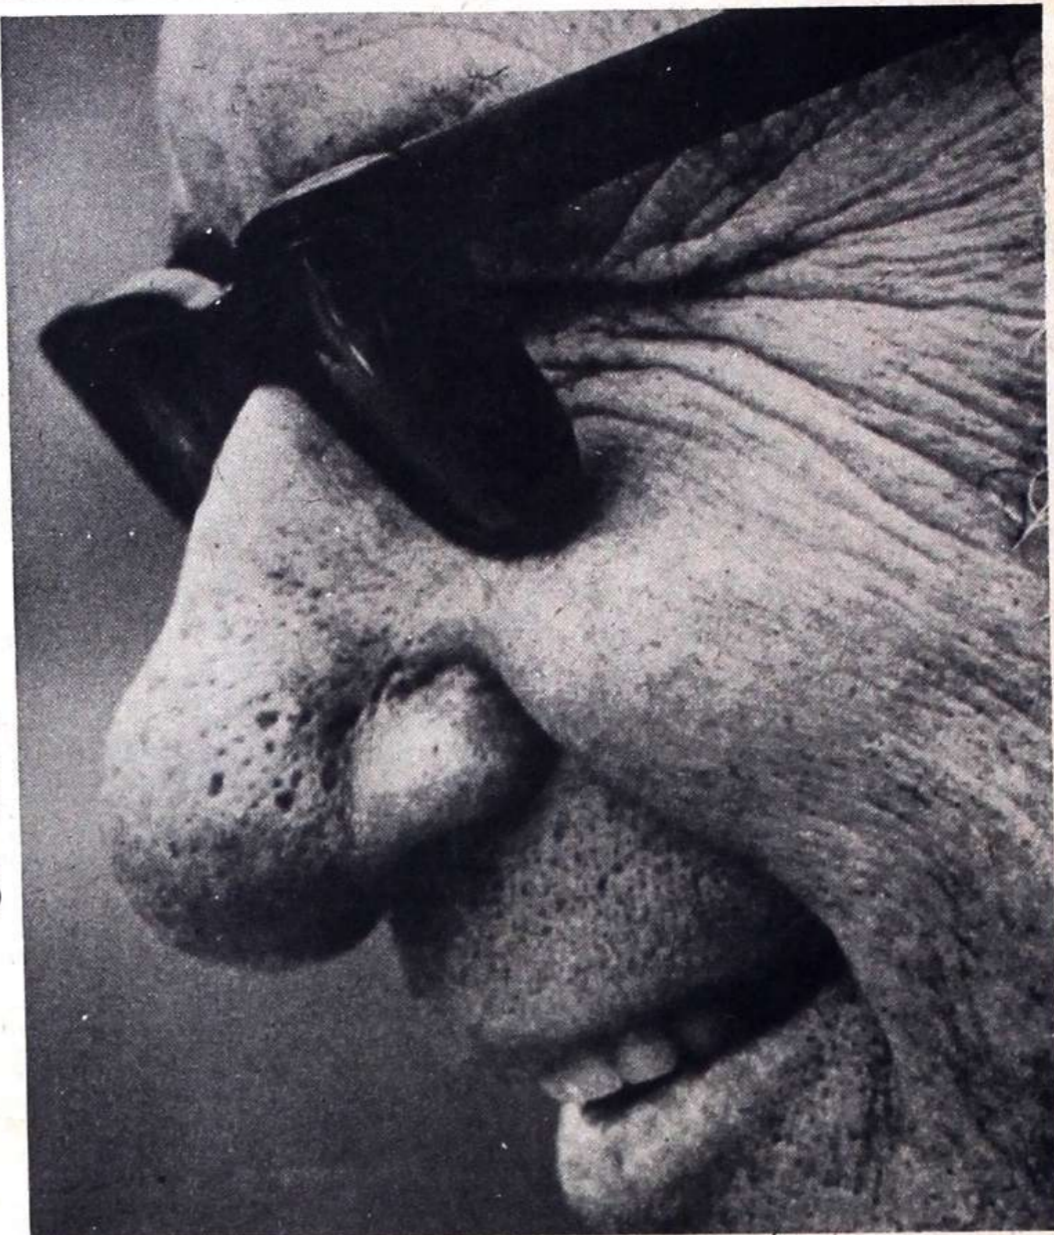

In addition, why publicize the warped-lives of those who are neurotic or psychotic? Instead, why not publicize the lives of those who are attempting to serve mankind?

PCHA today

Laymen strengthen authority

By RUSSELL J. TUTTLE
Director of Community Relations
Peoples Community Hospital Authority

The Michigan Legislature in 1945 correctly recognized the pressing need for a means whereby communities — which individually could not afford to construct quality health facilities — could pool their resources in a cooperative venture to build, operate, and maintain acute-care general hospitals to serve the needs of the community.

Hence, Public Act 47 (PA 47) was enacted, and the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) was created.

PCHA has grown since 1945 from one hospital — Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti — to four facilities which provide almost 1,000 beds and employ some 2,700 people.

PA 47 provides that each member community be assessed up to 0.4 mill on all real and personal property as state equalized. This modest levy is used to retire bonds issued for new plant construction.

The act also requires that participating communities be represented on the Board of Directors by one member for each 20,000 people (or fraction thereof) in the community census. When the census reaches 40,000, the community is allowed one more member on the board, and is given one more for each 40,000 thereafter.

Under the provisions of the act, 39 board members are appointed by the legislative bodies of the member communities, and seven are chosen by the board as members-at-large. Board members serve without pay, and they are, by and large, laymen who provide a distinct and unique consumer-oriented approach to the operation of the hospitals. And, in this era of consumerism, it becomes clearly evident that those who framed PA 47 in 1945 even then understood the importance of consumer participation in the decision-making process.

PCHA initially comprised nine communities. Today, there are 18 cities and five townships in the authority, and there are 46 members on the Board of Directors.

PA 47 was conceived with specific long-range views in mind. Once a community votes to join PCHA, it automatically assumes its proportionate share of the authority's bonded indebtedness, and it agrees to include up to 0.4 mill in its tax assessment to PCHA. It can not withdraw without a two-thirds approval vote of the Board of Directors. This important provision keeps the authority together, provides a continuity of purpose, and permits long-term financing on an equitable basis.

The advantages of cooperative participation are obvious. A small city or township would face almost intolerable financial obligations if it were to float a bond issue to build a hospital. By joining PCHA, community resources — which include consumer representation on the board as well as tax dollars — are pooled to the collective advantage of all participants.

In point of fact, PCHA as a direct function of its community-type organizational structure is able to provide hospital services at less cost than most comparable acute-care general hospitals in the area.

The concept of an authority is neither new nor radical. For years cities have united to build roadways, sewage disposal plants, power generating facilities, and water purification works to cite just a few.

It became, then, simply a matter of time before legislators understood that hospitals too could be operated under a specific authority statute.

PCHA hospitals — Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti; Annapolis in Wayne; Outer Drive in Lincoln Park; and Seaway in Trenton — now serve a population demand of 897,000 people, and this figure is projected to increase to 1.2 million by 1980. In view of this projected population increase, the authority has added new diagnostic out-patient facilities at Annapolis and Outer Drive hospitals. Additionally, new ICU-CCU units will be opened in late 1975 at Annapolis, Outer Drive and Seaway.

A fifth facility, the Heritage Hospital, now is under construction in the City of Taylor. This 233-bed hospital is scheduled to open in mid-1977.

We have invited a number of individuals in the community to write columns for us on their particular field of interest or involvement. Today Russ Tuttle, the director of community relations for the Peoples Community Hospital Authority, writes the first in his series of columns on the authority and health care in the community.

Residents who care to respond to the columns being published are invited to write us a letter or call Editor Lucy Wiesend at 729-4000.

Football tickets, anyone?

By LUCY WIESEND
Enterprise-Roman Editor

Selling tickets isn't that easy of a job.

I'm finding that out quickly trying to sell tickets to the Detroit Demons-Toledo Troopers football game being sponsored by the Wayne Civitan Club. For those of you who haven't heard of those two teams they're female football players. And they will be hitting the field at 8 p.m. Oct. 25 at John Glenn High School in Westland.

I've been a member of that club for just a few months now, and I'm afraid I'm failing on the first major project that I've been assigned to. That's helping to sell tickets for the game.

It's so important. Not my being a success selling tickets, but the cause. Proceeds from the game will go toward the Civitan 1976 Special Olympics project which will involve more than 1,000 youngsters from Western Wayne County.

It's a big, important undertaking for the local Civitan group, and the Civitans need all the support they can get.

The project was undertaken because the group thought interest would be high in seeing women battle it out on a football field. But, unfortunately, I've found the opposite may be true.

"Women have no business on the football field," one person said, after I asked if he wanted to buy some tickets for the game.

And another guy—an employee at The Enterprise-Roman — just laughed at the thought of women playing football. I then asked our sports editor, Tom Mooradian what he thought of the idea, and he said something like this:

"Women have no business out there on the football field getting all banged up."

Now that's a refreshing attitude if you ask me.

The other men I questioned about buying tickets were critical because the women were out on the football field playing in a male sport. Our sports editor was concerned for the health of the girls out there. And that's a good feeling. That's a feeling that there still are gentlemen interested in the well-being of the fairer sex.

But that doesn't solve my problem. I still have tickets to sell for the game and a lot of other Civitans depending on me to do my part in the effort. I thought maybe a plug in this column might help.

But before I get down to the business of the specifics about the tickets and the game, let me explain how I feel about the whole female football business.

If those women want to go out there, throw and run with the ball, get tackled and dirty in the process, more power to them. But you wouldn't catch me out there getting involved in semi-professional football.

It's not that I haven't played before—I have with my older brother and his friends—but that was just for kicks. I wasn't out there to make a name for myself as a football star.

But apparently some women are. I'm not a female libber, but I believe that every woman has a right to try her hand at any sport or profession she wants. If she can cut the ice, that's great. If she can't, then she should try something else.

If a woman can compete against a man and do a better job, then she deserves the job—no discrimination because of sex.

But the members of the Demons say that they have no desire to play men's teams. One added: "We're trying to play legitimate football and become high caliber in our own right."

"The Detroit Demons, organized in 1972, is at this time Michigan's only women's semi-professional football team. From beginnings of borrowed and throw-away equipment and 15 dedicated members, the team has worked hard and built itself into a full-fledged hard-hitting football team consisting of 30 players and coaching staff of five," according to Demons' literature. "Unofficially, the Demons are ranked second in the nation behind the Toledo Troopers."

And the game Oct. 25, is against the Troopers considered the top-ranking team in the National Women's Football League.

If you're interested in seeing women play football, contact a Wayne Civitan and get a couple of tickets for the game. Admission is $2.50 for adults, $1 for students and free for children under 12 when accompanied by an adult.

If you're not interested in seeing the game, buy a ticket anyway. The Civitans need the money to put on the Special Olympics for handicapped individuals in the community.

Remember, Oct. 25 is the date. Let's get behind this worthy cause and fill the bleachers at Westland John Glenn. The Civitans and the many who participate in Special Olympics will appreciate it.

The Enterprise-Roman is committed to bringing the Bicentennial closer to our readers. And as part of that effort, a series, "The Michigan Big Story," will be published weekly. The 76-part series includes topics which contributed to the shaping and direction of the State of Michigan. The impact which this series is certain to have will provide a legacy for future generations of readers as they look back on what we did to celebrate the Bicentennial in Michigan, according to the Michigan Revolution Bicentennial Commission. The series is being prepared by the commission.

DETROIT (1837) Thousands of settlers continue to pour into Michigan from the east. In spite of reports of poor land and lack of good roads into the area, people continue to gather in Detroit for the move into the interior regions.

Earlier descriptions of the state were less than flattering.

Surveyor General Edward Tiffin, in 1815, said of Michigan in part, "There would not be more than one acre out of a hundred, if there would be one out of a thousand, that would in any case admit to cultivation."

Morse's "Geography," which is the standard in many schools around the country, has these words written over the interior of Michigan: "Interminable Swamp."

But the negative reports have not kept the people from coming to see for themselves. In 1820, there were fewer than 9,000 persons in the Michigan territory. By 1830 the number had grown to about 32,000. Four years later, the population had tripled to near 90,000. Now in 1837, there are almost 175,000 inhabitants in our new state. Hundreds here are coming in daily.

John Gordon, a recent visitor and investor in Michigan land from Baltimore, Md., had these remarks when asked about the commercial prospects for Michigan: "It has natural channels of commerce radiating as from a common center, and commanding the Atlantic through the Canadas, and the southwestern states through the tributaries of the Mississippi."

Stewart for Mayor
P.O. BOX 293 Romulus

(Paid by Stewart for Mayor committee)

DEAR CITIZENS and TAXPAYERS of ROMULUS:

SOON YOU WILL BE HEARING AND SEEING RESULTS OF A RECENT POOL TAKEN IN ROMULUS.

WARNING:

Don't be taken in by fictitious publications of these results and-or percentages whether they be for or against any candidate running for Romulus City Government this year.

Remember this: percentages or results of a survey can be released to the public as the person or party paying for the survey wishes them to read, especially when the desire is to influence the voting public into believing the fictitious result published is a true fact.

Poll takers are invaders of your privacy when they demand answers to questions such as: your national origin; your religious and political affiliations; your union or non-union ties; who you are voting for; etc., etc., etc.

This poll has been bought and paid for by your present Mayor and-or his campaign to be re-elected.

Our present Mayor, his team, and campaign evidently don't realize the answers to questions such as those above are privileged, private, and personal; that American Citizens, under the Constitution of the United States, have certain rights; and the reason why we still have curtains on our voting booths today.

If our present Mayor and his team were the devoted, dedicated public servants of the people, for the people and had their ear tuned to the community as they claim — would they not know the people and the needs of the people without hiring outside operatives to do the work for them.

OR do you suppose that this poll is just another way of trying to get a political band wagon on the road.

Don't let our dear Mayor and his team try to convince you with their self-esteem into believing they have any kind of a band wagon rolling — when you know they have two broken axles, are frustrated, and don't know what to do because they didn't do what they should have done when they were supposed to.

The present administration and "rubber stamp" council have made too many mistakes, cost the taxpayers too much money, and published many fictitious reports during the past two years to even be considered for return to office.

We, the citizens for responsible government in Romulus, believe in this year of our bicentennial, that it is of extreme importance and vital to the welfare of our city and its citizens, that we, by our vote, elect Independents and insure that our independence will reign.

Romulus needs someone to hold-the-line on taxes, see that the people receive a fair and just return on their tax dollar, guide, protect, and promote the future of Romulus.

Electing a council consisting of Independent people working with an Independent Mayor assures you the "rubber stamp" system cannot exist.

An Independent Mayor solicits views and opinions as to what is best for community and citizens, makes judgment on his findings, and approaches council with plans and-or programs that will best serve the people.

An Independent Council is not told how to vote by a dictatorial Mayor, but vote their conscience as to what they individually feel is best for the community and citizens.

This type of bargaining system has been proven to be a deterrent to wanton waste of taxpayers money, wild spending of taxpayers money, cronyism, and pre-conceived deals.

We urge the citizens of Romulus to go to the polls Tuesday, November 4, 1975, and exercise their right to vote.

We also urge the citizens of Romulus to vote for an Independent Mayor and an Independent Council assuring us that Romulus will have government of the people and for the people.

Sincerely,

CONCERNED CITIZENS of ROMULUS

(Paid by Concerned Citizens of Romulus)

Bicentennial license plates make their debut

The Bicentennial bug has hit Belleville's Secretary of State office.

Secretary of State Branch manager John Barber reports that Michigan's special Bicentennial license plates for commercial vehicles and trailers now are on sale at the office near the intersection of High and Columbia streets.

Plates for passenger vehicles and motorcycles will be available starting Nov. 17.

The Bicentennial plates are the first 3-color license of Michigan, according to Barber.

The design was specially conceived to commemorate not only the 200th anniversary of independence in the United States, but also Michigan's role in 200 years of American history.

The design features a stylized replica of the American flag, including four stars on a field of blue with red and white wavy lines representing stripes. The four stars memorialize the four flags which flew over Michigan since the discovery of America and the wavy lines represent the winter water wonderland.

The nations which have been involved in Michigan history include the France from 1622 to 1783, the Britain from 1760 to 1786, the Spain in 1781 and the United States from 1783 to the present.

The little known Spanish involvement in the state's history is the holding of a fort by Spanish explorers briefly in 1781.

The fort was near Niles, but was abandoned almost as soon as it was established.

Jaycees host meeting

The Romulus Jaycees will be hosting a Meet the Candidates Night Oct. 25 in the Romulus High School Auditorium. Scheduled for 7 p.m., the meeting with the politicians involved in the Nov. 4 general election will feature 5-minute speeches from each of the candidates on their qualifications and the reasons they are seeking office and a question and answering session afterwards.

Persons attending the meeting will be asked to fill out written question which will be directed to the candidates after the speeches have been completed.

Plans call for the "night" to run from 7 to 10 p.m.

During the 1973 city elections between 300 and 400 persons attended a similar meeting, sponsored by the Jaycees. The organization expects approximately the same turnout this year.

Students to walk 15 miles

About 400 students from Romulus Senior High School literally will be walking their feet off for a Christmas party when they participate in the Student Council-Romulus Jaycees walk-a-thon Saturday.

The students, who have collected pledges for each mile walked from within the school and in the community, hope to exceed last year's walk-a-thon collection of $3,100.

The walk-a-thon will begin at 8 a.m. at the Romulus City Hall, Goddard at Wayne Road, and cover a 15-mile, figure 8 course. The students will walk from the City Hall to Wayne Road to Pennsylvania to Goddard, back to Wayne Road on to Wick Road to Tobine to Goddard and back to the City Hall.

According to Bill Barnes, a member of the school staff, the funds collected will be used for a Christmas party for youngsters who might not be able to have a Christmas observance.

Plans are to have the walkers complete the course before 5 p.m.

Belleville plots Trenton downfall

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Belleville has everything to win and nothing to lose when it runs up against undefeated Trenton, the fourth-ranked Class A power in the state Friday night.

That's the word from Belleville Coach Pat Stokes whose Tigers, after shutting out Redford Union 15-0 in its latest outing, are seated a step down from the Trojans on the Suburban 8 Conference ladder.

"We definitely are the underdogs and Trenton is a heavy favorite," Stokes said. "They (Trenton) are certainly the class of the league and the team to beat."

"We really don't have anything to lose but a lot to gain in this one."

Belleville will have an extra incentive to win Friday's Homecoming, and a crowd estimated at 5,000 is expected to jam into Belleville High Stadium. Belleville had more than its share of problems trying to shake a stubborn Redford Union last week. R.U. drove inside the Tiger 20-yard line on six separate occasions but just couldn't score.

"Redford Union came to play and we didn't," Stokes said. "We were lucky to win this one."

Scoreless the first half, Belleville finally broke the ice when quarterback Dan Scripser hit Russ Rooks on a 11-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter. The Tigers used a fake kick to score the 2-point conversion. Rod Sullens flipped the ball to Kevin Barnes, standing alone in the end zone.

The Tigers got to the 11

Tom Laine's fourth quarter interception, a run back of 47 yards, accounted for Belleville's only other score. Dan Theodore kicked the extra point.

It was the third straight game that Belleville's offense churned out 300 or more yards. The Tigers also had the edge in first downs 15-11 and total yardage 307 to 275.

Scripser found his receivers nine of 21 times for 161 yards but had three intercepted.

Keith Breithaupt made his return from a bout of illness a successful one as he recovered a fumble and teammate Tony Turrentine also pounced on an delinquent R.U. ball.

Rooks also contributed a Redford Union drive-stopping interception, picking the ball off at the Tiger six.

Barnes topped the Tiger rushers with 71 yards on 17 attempts while Rooks had five receptions for 85 yards and Scripser carried eight times for 52 yards.

Tackle Jeff Goins played an exceptional game on defense.

"It was a wild game," said Tom Fielder, assistant coach. "For a shutout, there was sure a lot of offense generated."

Favorites win titles

Belleville and Romulus found the going rough at the 16th annual Western Wayne Cross Country Invitational held Saturday at Wayne Memorial High School.

Belleville ended up fifth in the 8-team Section One race while Romulus found itself in seventh in the 8-team Section Two phase of the meet.

Undefeated Cherry Hill emerged with its first WW title as Coach Joe Grasley's harriers amassed 34 points, 30 less than its nearest challenger in Section one, while Livonia Churchill won the Section Two Championship. Both were favored to capture titles.

Grasley's Spartans, who have a string of 17 consecutive dual meet victories, also had the individual winner in the section as senior Bill Johnson beat sophomore Kevin Kitzke to the wire.

Johnson's winning time was 15:56.5 while Kitzke, wearing Garden City East's colors, finished in 16:06. The top seven in the race also include: George Hudock, Livonia Franklin (16:12), Scott Smith, Cherry Hill (16:22), Dale Brown, Cherry Hill, (16:25), Jim Dydo, Garden City East (16:30) and John Lynch, Wayne Memorial (16:34).

Trailing Cherry Hill and East in the section were: Livonia Franklin (83), Wayne Memorial (87), Belleville (109), Dearborn Heights Annapolis (133), Plymouth Canton (218) and Taylor Truman (251).

Churchill, running for its fifth consecutive Western Six Conference title, has been able to win the sectional title during the "odd years," pulling off previous victories in 1971, 1973 and now in '75.

It stopped defending champ, Westland John Glenn's bid for a second consecutive title. Churchill garnered 31 team points while John Glenn had 41, followed by Garden City West (90), Taylor Kennedy (112), Taylor Center (119), Crestwood (144), Romulus (165) while Dearborn Heights Robichaud didn't finish five runners.

Churchill also had the 1-2 finishers in the division. Junior Vic Wietecha had the best time of the day for the 3-miles, registering a 15:47.5. Teammate Todd Wint was clocked in 15:52 and he led Ted Unold, John Glenn (15:54), Mike Lancial, Taylor center (15:58), Tim Barr, Crestwood (15:59), Keith Stoddard, Churchill (16:15) and Curt Cretal, John Glenn (16:25) to the wire.

Tiger Swim Club set

Tim Frey has joined the Tiger Swim Club's 15-man team of qualifiers for the AAU "A" Swim Meet to be held at Warren Consolidated on Oct. 24 through 26.

Frey was the latest qualifier as he turned in a 2:40.2 for the 200-yard backstroke at a meet held at Garden City.

"We're going to take a group of 15 swimmers to Warren next week," said John Stosick, Tiger Club Swim coach. "I feel we're going to do pretty well over there."

The Tiger Swim Club has 120-members and competes in AAU Age Group swim competition.

AUTO
FACTS

by Jr. Kosin

The distributor in your car is the heart of the ignition system; it controls cylinder firing. The distributor consists of a number of components that relay the battery's low-voltage electricity to the spark plugs. Each one of these distributor components — cap, rotor, advance assemblies, breaker points and condenser — has to be kept in suitable condition and properly adjusted so that they will deliver to the correct plug at the correct moment.

If you are looking for those hard-to-get parts and accessories for foreign cars, visit KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan. We specialize in all parts for Datsun, Toyota, Fiat, Opel, Volkswagen, and many others. We also carry a full line of parts and accessories for domestic cars. Ask about our complete machine shop service for turning brake drums, doing valve work, and rebuilding engines. All work is done by expert machinists. Stop in any day from 8 A.M. until 8 P.M., and on Saturdays until 5 P.M. Our friendly and knowledgeable staff will be happy to help you! Call us at 563-3894.

AUTO FACTS:

If your car has an electronic ignition system it does not have the same sort of distributor as the regular ignition systems.

Franklin wins golf championship

Livonia Franklin proved it is in a class of its own when it comes to area high school golfing. Coach Bob Visser's undefeated Northwest Suburban Conference linksmen made a farce out of the 15th running of the Western Wayne Invitational held yesterday at Salem Hills.

The Livonians won an easy 23 stroke victory over their nearest challenger, Garden City West, en route to their fourth WW title.

The champs posted 338 strokes as compared to West's 361. Wayne Memorial trailed in third with 365, Westland John Glenn was fourth with 369. Then came Garden City East 372, Belleville and Cherry Hill tied for sixth with 377 totals.

"I knew we had to play near our average in order to win it," said Franklin Coach Bob Visser. "I feel the weather, (it was drizzling throughout most of the tournament) contributed to the high scores, however our boys did a nice job."

"And it's always nice to come away from any kind of tournament with a championship trophy," Visser added.

Three of Franklin's four golfers finished in the top five. Sophomore Glenn Murray emerged from the drizzle as medalist. He toured the Salem Hills course with an 82.

Murray shot 41 going out, and rode home on a 41 on the par 72 Salem course.

"The weather had to play a crucial role in the scores," Visser continued. "No one was even close to breaking par."

One stroke behind the tournament medalist was Henry Leszczynski, of Garden City West. Leszczynski was 3-over-par on the front nine, but his putting failed in the back nine and carded a 44 for an 83 total.

Murray got ample support from his teammates John Lyons and Dave Winkler who checked in with 84's. Also with an 84 was Wayne Memorial's junior Tim O'Brien who strung together rounds of 41 and 43.

"Considering the weather, the course was in good shape," said Scott Wilson, Belleville High School coach and host for the annual event. "The greens held but they were slow. Also, there wasn't too much water out there."

Bob Szilagyi, golf pro at Salem, also believed that the elements were the cause of the high scores.

"That heavy dew had to affect the putting and that's what skyrocketed the scores," Szilagyi offered. "They weren't putting as well as they could under normal conditions.

"But the tournament, I felt, was a good one. There are plenty of good golfers in this bunch," he said. Wayne and John Glenn though out of the title picture, proved to have the top two golfers in the coaches' flight. Glenn's Bill

Fife shot an 86 to earn the first place trophy and Wayne's Norm Boyea and Cherry Hill's Bill Kelley were three strokes back at 89, good for second place.

Romulus pours it on Robichaud, 20-6

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

When opportunity knocks, one is supposed to answer.

And when Robichaud offered Romulus three excellent scoring opportunities, Coach Tom Baldwin's Eagles responded by tallying three times in a convincing 20-6 victory over the Dearborn Heights gridders on Saturday.

"Saturday was Parents' Day here," Baldwin said. "And I told our players that there was no better way to honor their parents than by going out and winning a football game.

"They responded in the way we felt they would. We're pleased to win this one over a fine Robichaud team."

Scoreless the first quarter, Romulus broke the deadlock with two touchdowns in the second 12 minutes of the game. Quarterback Michael Morrison slipped through the Bulldog defense from 3-yards out for Romulus's first TD.

Then, Bob Blundell tried his first of three extra points of the day and missed. He went on to get the next two.

Within 2½ minutes of their initial touchdown, Romulus was again on the scoreboard. Jim Parker blocked a Robichaud punt and the ball was recovered by the Eagles on the Bulldog 4-yard line.

Romulus went into the end zone, this time with Steve Hutchison lunging in from 2-yards out. Blundell's point after kick built up Romulus's halftime advantage to 13-0.

However Robichaud kept the outcome of the game in doubt when the Bulldogs came back and made it a 13-6 ball game early in the third quarter.

The visitors put together a six-play, 51 yard drive which was climaxed by fullback Dave Mathews's touchdown plunge.

It was Romulus's defense that contributed the insurance touchdown and that was in the middle of the third quarter. A bad Robichaud snap from center gave the Eagles the ball deep in Bulldog territory at the 35.

Morrison maneuvered his team to the six where he offered Tony Hensley a chance to go in and Hensley used the opportunity to score his first TD of the season.

"That TD broke our backs," Robichaud's Bob Yauck said. "I felt we still had a chance until they scored that one. I can't blame our defense though - it played well. The offense is responsible for this loss."

Romulus harriers split

Eagles fly past Willow Run

Romulus runners bounced back from a loss to Dearborn Heights Annapolis to coach past Willow Run.

Coach Al Wilkerson's Eagles were clipped 22-37 by Annapolis but won a convincing 18-45 victory over Willow Run, padding their record to 4-2 on the season.

"We didn't run well against Annapolis and I can't put my finger on it," Wilkerson said. "I felt we could have done much better than we did."

The best of the Romulus runner was Robert Lemmon who turned in a 17:22 in placing third, then Denardo Green hit the wire fifth for the Eagles (17:47) followed by Joe Schieda, sixth (17:49), while Jeff Warren was 11th (18:23) and Steve Zimmerman was 12th (19:05).

Annapolis's premier runner, John Dohan, toured the 3-miles with the winning time of 16:37.

Running about a quarter of a mile longer in the Willow Run meet, Romulus managed to outlast the Flyers. Steve Zimmerman's 18:01 gave the Eagles a first place while teammate Green trailed him to the wire. The second place time was 18:06.

Romulus also nailed down the fourth through eighth post with Wendell Buckley (18:47), who was returned to the Romulus lineup after a brief illness; Schieda, who was fifth (18:53), while Lemmon, (18:57), Jeff Warren (19:00) and Eugene Tippo (19:53) followed.

Cougars take 2 of 3 games from Westland Meteors

Westland Meteors thought they had the perfect victim for their Western Suburban Junior Football Conference Homecoming in Belleville's Cougars.

They thought wrong as the Cougars swept two of the three games.

The Cougars lost a lopsided 20-6 Junior Varsity decision, wasting Frank McDaniel's touchdown. McDaniel scooped up a Meteor blocked punt by Doug Rhoads and raced into the endzone for Belleville's lone score.

Richard Limin turned in an excellent defensive effort as he counted 10 tackles for the game.

The Junior Varsity turned back the Meteors

12-6 while the Varsity earned a hard-fought 7-0 shutout.

In the Junior Varsity duel, the Cougars broke a scoreless first quarter with Gregg Brinkeroff's touchdown. Brinkeroff grabbed a quarterback Dave LeBlanc pass and scooted 12-yards for the touchdown.

The Cougars padded their lead to 12-0 in the third quarter as LeBlanc threw a 25-yard strike to Dennis Fry.

The Westlanders kept the outcome of the game in doubt, however, when midway in the final quarter Wayne Davis sprinted 77-yards for a touchdown, closing the gap to 12-6. But, the Cougar defense took over and shut off their rivals the rest of the way.

Flyers land a win

Romulus's Flyers managed to scrape up a win and a tie against strong Garden City Tiger football contingents in Western Suburban Junior Football competition.

Despite the heroics of quarterback Duane Hess and linebacker Kevin Waack, the Flyers lost a 6-0 Freshmen game to the Tigers.

However, the Junior Varsity bounced back to defeat their peers 7-0 on the strength of a 51-yard touchdown by Raymond Waack who snared a pass from quarterback Rickey Routley and went the distance.

Detroit Diesel extends warranty

Detroit Diesel Allison (DDA) Division of General Motors, located in Romulus, has extended the warranty on a new line of truck diesel engines to 200,000 miles or two years.

This represents the most liberal engine warranty in the company's history and is believed to be the best warranty in the industry, according to Chester B. Clum, DDA's general sales manager.

The extended warranty provisions apply to the division's new fuel squeezer engines, introduced in early August. Fuel squeezers are turbo-charged, high-torque-rise, constant horsepower engines which run at reduced rpm. They deliver 10 to 20 percent greater fuel economy, while giving equal or better overall performance than conventional engines.

The new 200,000 mile, or 24 month, warranty provides for 100 percent coverage on parts and labor. Optional or accessory equipment such as alternators, starters, voltage regulators and air compressors continue to be warranted for the standard 50,000 miles, or 24 months, whichever comes first.

"The outstanding durability of our new engine line has been demonstrated by millions of miles of field testing," Clum said. "This gives us the opportunity to offer our customers significantly better engine life backed by the best warranty coverage in the industry."

VFW Auxiliary guests at lake

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Molik of Ypsilanti recently entertained members of VFW Auxiliary Post 4434 of Belleville at a pot luck dinner at their cottage on Tioga Lake. Attending the gathering were Shirley Cullin, Leona Agge, Marie Ocholik, Gladys Bordt and Edna Harris. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Dolin and daughter, Amy, and Jan Wyman. Water bicycling around the color-framed lake was part of the fun.

A social meeting was held Oct. 2 at the VFW Hall with Helen Matewicz as hostess for a "country fair" evening. There were many interesting items on which to bid and everyone agreed it was an unusual and pleasant evening.

The regular business meeting will be held Oct. 16 at the VFW Hall on Bemis Road. The forthcoming feather party planned for Nov. 16 at the PNA Hall will be discussed. One of the group's best fund raising projects, the party's proceeds will benefit charitable projects.

BPW meeting sets future club plans

The monthly meeting of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) was held Oct. 6 at Faith United Methodist Church in Denton with 40 members and guests attending. An autumn decorative scheme was used for the dinner tables.

The highlight of the program was the "Women of the Year" award which went to Ruth Davis, the group's current membership chair person and a past president. Ethel McDonald, program chairman, introduced the honoree while Eva Luper, another member of her committee, presented her with the award pin. A niece, Mellisa Drive, pinned a corsage on her aunt's dress.

Vesta Losen, although absent, and Diane Melvin were installed by Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Losen is administrator of the Bethany Day Care Center and Ms. Melvin is a physical education teacher at John Kennedy High School in Taylor.

Blood bank chairman, Martha Morton, spoke to the group on the upcoming blood bank which will be held from 2 to 7:45 p.m. Oct. 27 at Belleville High School. National Business Women's Week will be observed from Oct. 18-25.

The local club will start the week with a proclamation signed by Mayor Ellis Amerman of Belleville, a breakfast at Flag's and church services at the First United Methodist Church.

Parties honor brides-to-be

By LEE SMITH
Suburban Living Editor

Bringing a series of pre-nuptial parties for Luanne Smith to a grand finale the first week-end in October were two miscellaneous events. The first, a bridal shower luncheon, was hosted by a close friend and neighbor of the Smith family, Mrs. George Heifner of Edison Lake Road.

The 1 p.m. party got underway with the hostess, her daughter Debbie Duane, and the honoree's sister Carol Smith serving punch to the 25 guests who arrived from Ypsilanti, Wayne, Ann Arbor, Mt. Pleasant, Lincoln Park and Belleville.

The group got acquainted during a luncheon of Maurice salad, hot rolls and hot fudge cream puffs served at tables arranged with orange and yellow appointments and vases of colorful fall mums. Mrs. Jack Turtle of Lincoln Park assisted.

Each woman then drew a slip of paper with a single word on it. It was explained that the honoree opened each guest's gift, that person would receive a prize if Luanne mentioned the word — "starred" words receiving special awards.

Special index cards had also been included with the invitations and each person was asked to bring her favorite recipe along. The cards fit into an album, one of the hostess' gifts, which will be a "cooking reminder" of friends back home when the newlyweds settle in Illinois.

The door prize went to Mrs. Al Cicotte for having a wedding anniversary nearest to the date of Luanne's October wedding.

Before the group dispersed they were introduced to the prospective bridegroom, Pete Schonfeld, who was in from Evanston, Ill. for the weekend.

The following afternoon, a pretty autumn Sunday, Luanne's aunt Mrs. Leonard Burrell of Willis, played hostess at a shower where the gifts leaned strongly to the needs and necessities of the kitchen.

Relatives from Chelsea, Ypsilanti, Milan, Willis and Belleville enjoyed several clever games, a couple geared to Luanne and Pete personally. One was a pictorial quiz which the bride-elect was able to test her fiancé on after the party. The buffet centerpiece, an avocado bundt pan filled with an array of mums and a bridal candle, was the work of Luanne's grandmother, Mrs. Ethel Smith, who presented the arrangement to her along with another gift. Among the presents was a hand-embroidered cross stitch tablecloth made by her aunt, Mrs. Alonzo Smith of Ypsilanti.

Lu and Pete will join the ranks of the young married couples on Oct. 24.

Couples hold shower

Friends of Nan Coulter of Monroe and Dave Hall of Romulus did a bit of "behind the scenes" planning and came up with a surprise "couples' shower" for the pair who plan to be married this month.

With Bill and Lynn Gustafson of Southgate as instigators, the party was set for a Friday night when the honored pair was to be at dinner at Dave's parents home in Romulus. With the senior David Halls in on the scheme, their dinner was the perfect place to spring the surprise.

Just as dessert was about to be served, some 14 couples burst through the door ringing bells and blowing noisemakers, waving banners and clumps of balloons and singing "Here Comes the Bride." Needless to say (but we will) the prospective bride and groom were completely overwhelmed and shaken but finally recovered their composure enough to join in the festivities.

The dessert Mrs. Hall had planned oddly enough turned out to be more than enough for the entire gang who enjoyed a social evening which finally ended with beer and pizza after midnight. Gifts presented the pair were bought with both of them in mind — things they both would use (playing cards and poker chips, a popcorn popper, Monopoly and Tripoli games, cocktail equipment, etc.)

Friends, attending, all former students of Western Michigan University, came in from Flint, Utica, Ann Arbor, Dearborn and Birmingham.

Vacation includes cruise

Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkendoll recently returned to their Wear Road home after a 15-day vacation which took them by plane to Miami, Fla. Their itinerary included not only that city and Miami Beach but a visit to Joens Eisenhower in Key Biscayne and a 6-day Caribbean cruise.

Among the 300 on board, the Kirkendolls had nothing but praise for the ship, service, food, entertainment and fellow passengers. Ports visited during the trip included Nassau and Freeport in the Bahamas.

They also took time out to simply relax and enjoy the sun in Florida as well as getting a look at sealife at Marineland before flying back to Belleville.

Franklin is a year old

Continuing their summer pattern of birthday celebrations (which kept Charles and Lucy Kline hopping) was the wind-up of family natal dates — their son, Franklin's first year party.

Franklin's big day was marked with his parents, his 5-year old sister Cheryl and 15-year old brother Glenn, in the family's motor home during one of their many weekend trips...this one finding them in Onkama, Mich. All the birthday fixin's were available for the occasion.

A special guest at the party was the young man's grandmother, Bessie Kline, who had come in from Anaheim, Calif. to spend some time with her grandchildren. Her arrival followed her own 75th birthday observance which she enjoyed with friends and family on the West Coast before departing for Michigan.

Menu doldrums?

Menu monotony is a hazard a woman faces when she has to plan over 3000 dinners a year. Lamb will add variety to the usual routine. Some cooks are acquainted only with the popular leg of lamb or rib or loin chops.

Local group hears speaker from Eastern

The Belleville Senior Citizens Club had as guest speaker at its regular Thursday night meeting, Kathy Quinn of the Eastern Michigan University (EMU) faculty. She illustrated her helpful hints for the hard of hearing, using the opaque projector. She told the group to use sight techniques as well as listening or speaking in a more careful manner.

Following the pot luck dinner which had been planned by Minnie Schultz, the drawing for the red, white and blue afghan was held. Made by Ethel Cullin, the handiwork raffle was sponsored for the benefit of the group's "Kitchen Belles Band." The winner was William Romsdahl.

October meetings will continue to be held at Edgemont School at 6:30 p.m. each Thursday. Members' birthdays and anniversaries will be honored on the first meeting of the month. Myrtle Gasilo and Alice Hightower are to be in charge of the decorated table and cakes and ice cream for the occasion.

Bingo will be played on the second Thursday of the month. A special October program will feature Jack Frost, a local member who also is a star tap dancer with the well known "Gay Nineties" troupe.

Visitors to the club are always welcome.

Myrtle Wells, club president, may be reached at 697-8535 for transportation arrangements.

Golden year approaches

Golden wedding bells are about to peal for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Woods, former Belleville residents who now reside in Manchester, Tenn. An open house in honor of their 50 years of togetherness will be held Oct. 18 at the Oddfellows Hall, 970 Savage Rd., Belleville. Friends of the couple are invited to attend the party from 2 to 6 p.m. The honored pair's family tree includes a daughter, Donna Gavin and three sons, Clyde Leroy Woods of Dearborn and Gerald R. Woods of Northport and the late Milton C. Woods. There are also eight grandsons and one granddaughter about which to boast.

Elwell scouts watch government in action

Girl Scout Troop 589 of Elwell School visited the Van Buren Township offices for a first-hand view of government at work. The trip was made in conjunction with the celebration of "Citizenship Day."

The girls, along with their leader, Mrs. George Warren, and assistant leaders, Mrs. Raye Ostrowski and Mrs. Joan Depriest, enjoyed punch and cookies with Van Buren Supervisor Elton Gollwitzer who answered questions from the group.

The troop observed a water bill in the making, saw the tax records and were able to sit in the police car while officers answered questions.

Parents were invited to help celebrate the girls' dedication and fly-up ceremony. Brownies "flying up" were Sandy Ostrowski, Tammy Depriest, Wanda Rains, Carla Phelps, Julie Rose, Cindy Vickery, and Missy Meldovan.

Those receiving troop camper badges were Mary Louise Ferrell, Shelly Riggs, Glenda Hall, Sherry Daroci, Lisa Wood, Lisa Jeffery, Liz Gamche, Kim Thick, Amanda Kramer, Robin Kramer and Liz Stettler.

The girls also took a day to visit the Oakwoods Nature Center and enjoy the beautiful fall colors while hiking and picnicking.

The troop's current project is making puppets for a spooky Halloween production.

Of James B. Ford

Heirloom gown chosen by bride

A European honeymoon of 4-weeks duration followed the recent marriage of Hattie Lou Taylor and James B. Ford. The young couple now reside in Athens, Ga. where they are attending the University of Georgia. The Graham United Methodist Church in Graham, Ga., was the setting for the summer wedding which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Stone of Baxley, Ga. and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ford of Belleville.

Double ring vows were exchanged at 4 p.m. before

The Rev. Joe P. Peabody and some 100 assembled guests. For the occasion the altar, appointed with two 7-branched candelabras, was flanked by two giant Boston ferns.

The bridegroom's father, who is principal of Belleville High School, was soloist with Debbie Ford Erickson accompanying her father on the piano.

A bit of family history was involved in the heirloom gown which the bride wore for her wedding day. A 2-piece creation of light wool chalis, the dress was made by the bridegroom's great-great grandmother for her daughter, Sarah Searle, to wear when she married The Rev. Henry Ford in Grace Cathedral of Topeka, Kans. in 1880.

Miss Taylor was the fifth bride to wear the dress which also has been worn by the bridegroom's aunt, Margaret Ford Yost; his cousin, Sarah Ford Hafemann, and his sister, Deborah Ford Erickson. The gown was designed with a modified V-neckline, three-quarter sleeves which fell in a diagonal ruffle below the elbow and a sheer bodice, skirt and chapel train. Her candlelight illusion veil was banded in lace and drifted to mid-back length and her hand bouquet was comprised of yellow sweetheart roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Other nostalgic touches included a pearl necklace which had belonged to the bride's grandmother and a narrow gold bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom.

Preceding the bride and her father up the aisle were Sandra Stone of Baxley, Ga. who was her sister's honor attendant; and Carole Stone and Anita Stone of Hazlehurst, Ga., sisters-in-law of the bride.

The maid of honor appeared in a Nile green polyester gown accented with beige lace. A wide-brimmed beige hat encircled with green ribbon and a basket filled with green and apricot zinnias completed her ensemble. Similar outfits in apricot were chosen for the two bridesmaids.

Four-year-old Meg Stone, niece of the bride, was dressed in a little Nile green frock topped with a beige eyelet pinafore for her role as flowergirl. She, too, wore a wide-brimmed hat sashed in green.

John P. Ford Jr. of Sumter, S.C. was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were another brother, Bruce Ford of Belleville, and a brother-in-law, Charles Erickson of Owings Mill, Md.

At the reception which followed in the church social hall, the bride's mother received in a green trimmed pink polyester gown. Her corsage was fashioned of pink sweetheart roses. Mrs. Ford chose for her son's wedding a floral polyester gown in pastel shades. Pink tea roses were used for her corsage.

The new Mrs. Ford earned her bachelor of science degree in education from the University of Georgia (U.G.) and currently is working towards her master's degree in education. She has taught junior high mathematics in both Athens and Baxley, Ga.

Her bridegroom received his bachelor of arts degree

Bone up on soup

Familiarity with the wide variety of beef cuts is important in identifying good buys. But what about the beef bone? We know ham bones make a delicious soup base; the same holds for beef bones. They're often available at the meat counter nowadays, or you can ask the market man for them. It's what's inside that counts, for the marrow produces that good beef flavor.

A soup bone plus a modest amount of beef for stew or ground or left-over beef, in combination with vegetables, provides a hearty soup to be served as the main entree.

A new play begins with a new producer

By Diana Cooper
Of The Players Staff

"But I'm brand new at this! What do I know about being a producer?" she protested.

Nevertheless, Sherry Erb was the unanimous choice of The Players general membership when it voted in August on a producer for the group's children's play, "Sir Slob and the Princess."

Soothed with instant offers of help and encouragement from experienced members, Sherry reluctantly agreed to take on the job. Before the end of that meeting, she had begun her task by initiating committees and appointing the co-directors for the fall production.

At first the producer's job seemed a fuzzy, chaotic co-ordinating of the mere beginnings of a new play idea. But gradually the thought began to take form as she prepared her production schedule and checked off each item in its turn.

Satisfaction replaced the anxiety of stage arrangements when the "agreement for use" contract was signed with the North Junior High School acting principal, Bill Sparrow — the date being Oct. 25 with performances at both 1 and 3 p.m.

Publicity committee suggestions were spurred by Sherry's direct contact with Phyllis Greer who assisted in the swift arrangement of a flyer to be distributed to school children through the auspices of the administration offices of the Van Buren School System.

With auditions held, cast assembled and committees busy at work, Sherry was simply too engrossed to worry. A cast member herself (the Wizard) she echoed the whispered praise of the directors during breaks at "line" rehearsals (learning to deliver dialogue, with feeling.)

Sherry later confirmed these spirited comments with some bare facts: the budget was still within balance (what with the cost of royalties and the script fees already allowed for) and the costume committee reportedly in full swing tracking down materials and hand props in the most economic manner — borrowing!

Sometimes firm (but always with tact) Sherry Erb, the producer, continues to co-ordinate the diverse elements of putting on a new play, the last of which entails drawing up a final profit-loss statement. But by all accounts, we are all optimistic of a real winner in "Sir Slob and the Princess."
